Cycling on Duero

Discovering the Ecopistas of Portugal

THE IDEA OF YOUR TRIP TO PORTUGAL

A tour to discover the best and most authentic of northern Portugal. An itinerary that will take you to navigate the Duero river, to rove vineyards and visit centenary wineries tasting their popular gastronomy; but especially, enjoy its welcoming people that will make you feel like one more. Six unique days through the Ecopista do Dao.

Day 1, Oporto. We are waiting you at the airport to transfer to your hotel in the center of Oporto, near the river, to enjoy the best views of the wineries. At your arrival, a walk through the center to enjoy the best sunset.

Day 2, Viseu. Early departure to Viseu, a university city with a lot of history, museums and a monumental center that will take you to another era. Today will be a quiet day enjoying the scenery and a small cycling tour by the Ecopista do Dao, an old railway track recovered for the walk. We will dine in a typical tavern.

Day 3, Viseu. After breakfast, we will take our bicycles to cross the first section that takes us to Tondela. Lunch will be based on a picnic in a special splace. Back to Viseu, afternoon to visit its most unique museums and buildings.

Day 4, Viseu. In the morning, the second part of the route to Tondela, where we will cross the Ecopista Santa Comba do Dao and its Albufeira. Today we will eat in Santa Comba do Dao, in a restaurant close by the river, in the middle of the nature.

Day 5, Castelo de Paiva. Baxk to Porto, we will stop at Castelo de Paiva, in order to make a boat tour on the Duero river and visit a wine cellar in the heart of the Dão. wine region. We will arrive to Porto with time to wander arounds its most attractive neighborhoods, and thus take a complete experience of your stay.

Day 6, Porto. Time to make the last purchases in the supplies market and transfer to the airport.
