Good practice in green mobility

Luxemburg: free public transport

Austria: supports transferable practices on circular and climate-friendly tourism. Initiatives over the years:

- New Austrian Eco-Label for tourism destinations since January 2022:
- Yearly tourism mobility days and meetings of the tourism mobility platform as well as of the working group on cycling tourism
- Climate and Energy Tourism Model Regions:
- Impulses for energy efficient and environmentally-friendly solutions in accommodation and gastronomy, e.g. online guidelines on energy efficiency (5th edition 2022)
- Tourism-specific studies on climate change

Ireland. The National Sustainable Mobility Policy sets out a strategic framework to 2030 for active travel (walking and cycling) and public transport journeys to help Ireland meet its climate obligations. The policy aims to deliver at least 500,000 additional daily active travel and public transport journeys by 2030 and a 10% reduction in the number of km driven by fossil fueled cars. It will make it easier for people to choose walking, cycling and use public transport daily instead of having to use a petrol or diesel car.

European Cyclists' Federation (ECF). Work with stakeholders across the continent to implement EuroVelo, the European cycle route network, so that it is a fully developed and high-quality network, which is well-connected to national, regional and local cycle route networks and other sustainable modes of transport, driving further increases in everyday cycling and cycling tourism. Target: Increase in the % of the network implemented every year.

Pays de la Loire Région, France. The aim is to improve the transport offer and soft mobility for tourists, to offer travelers new experiences (e.g.: without my car, by boat) and to better distribute tourist flows in the region.

By 2028: development of intermodal solutions, experimentation with solutions for reaching a destination within 1km, attractive pricing policy, simplification of online sales, etc. Cycle tourism is a crucial issue in the Pays de la Loire, and there will need to be more use the cycling continuity, from cycle tourism to everyday cycling. By 2025: Pays de la Loire will be the top French destination for cycle tourism. By 2030: 100% of our destinations accessible by green means of transport (soft or collective mobility) and 0% of our destinations exclusively accessible by (individual) car.

Regione Emilia-Romagna, Italy:

- Increase of cycle paths throughout the region.
- Installation of electric charging stations on the regional territory
- Completion of the Metropolitan Railway System
- MoU to complete the priority allotments of the VENTO cycle route, complete priority allotments of the SOLE cycle route
- Construction of the Adriatic cycle route, intelligent mobility systems
- Financing of projects promoted by local authorities for the construction of cycle paths and initiatives for bicycle/pedestrian mobility.

Target 1: +1000 km of cycle paths in 2025 compared to 2020 (1120 km). Target 2: + 2500 electric charging stations on the regional territory in 2025 compared to 2020 (708). Target 3: Metropolitan Railway System completed in 2025. Target 4: Finalization of the aforementioned Memoranda of Understanding by 2025. Target 5: Completion of the aforementioned allotments by 2025. Target 6: Completion of the aforementioned cycle route by 2025. Target 7: 800 smart appliances installed on board of the collective public means of transportation by 2025. Target 8: € 17,000,000.00 allocated to Local Authorities for the realization of the aforementioned projects by 2030.

Funding sources for transition?

- Tourism can be supported under 14 EU funding programmes:
https://ec.europa.eu/growth/sectors/tourism/funding-guide_en
- In 2022 also Technical Support Instrument by DG REFORM provided support for 7 MS
- National support under National recovery and resilience plans for 15 MS with specific action on tourism, also others may support tourism actors under e.g. SME support for green and digital transition
- Tourism actors can apply funding through different means
 - Organisations as part of consortia applying for EU level grants
 - Organisations applying individually or jointly funds managed at national and regional levels
 - SMEs applying for direct support organized through SMP funded actions with specific calls
- Currently open EU funding opportunities:
<https://ec.europa.eu/info/funding-tenders/opportunities/portal/screen/opportunities/topic-search>
- There are also several other support mechanisms for SMEs which give technical assistance, training and support in finding funding options: European Enterprise Network, European Cluster Collaboration platform, Digital Innovation Hubs, EIC accelerator, Tourism Business Portal, ...

What is happening right now?

- First stock-taking exercise of Transition pathway progress
 - For the 2-year anniversary of the co-implementation phase, we take stock of implemented actions and achievements by:
 - The European Commission
 - The Member States
 - Stakeholders (especially pledges)
 - We analyse inputs and data
 - Across statistical sources (Eurostat, EU Tourism Dashboard)
 - Ecosystem monitoring study
 - From Member States and Stakeholders reporting
 - By analysing pledges content and reported results
 - From stakeholders consulting, including MS, EU institutions, EC policy services
 - First full report will be published early 2024 with yearly indicators
- Establishing systematic support tools: T4T stakeholder support platform, T4T stakeholder expert working groups
- Current focus areas: Skills and staff shortages; Tourism data space – essential enablers for a future-oriented transition of EU Tourism

Transition pathway: your role

- Get informed :
 - Read the TTP report and reflect its relevance to your activities – it gives a picture much broader than just a list of actions
- Discuss and connect with others:
 - Explore existing published pledges by similar type of actors, from your region, and/or regarding your areas of interest
 - Launch discussions on company/national/regional/local level on existing and potential synergies between TTP objectives and your own strategies for long-term development
- Define your own path and target for action:
 - Recognise relevant objectives and formulate concrete actions for reaching them
 - Embed your actions in respective strategies and practices with clear communication to all relevant actors (partners, workers, customers)
- Collaborate:
 - Share your work as your pledges demonstrating your leadership in the transition
 - Follow and participate in the Together for EU Tourism community activities
